ONLINE, HYBRID, FLIPPED, & BLENDED CLASSES

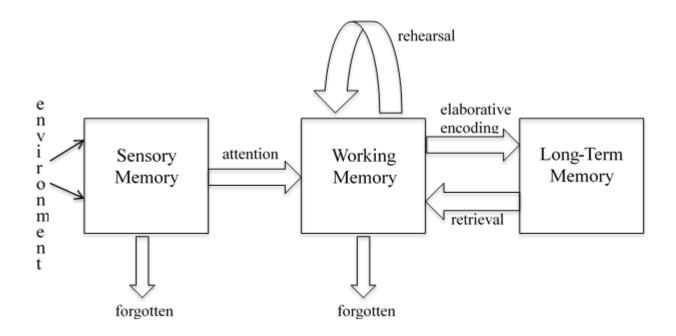

(Modified) Traditional Class Structure

Basic Structure of the Flipped Class

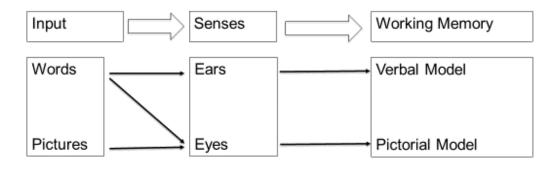

ONLINE, HYBRID, FLIPPED, & BLENDED CLASSES

How Learning Works

Learning and Multimedia Considerations

SAMR: A Framework for Technology Integration

Substitution

Tech as a direct tool substitute, with no functional change.

Note-taking on a tablet or laptop.

Augmentation

Tech directly substituted, but providing some functional improvement.

Projecting slides with embedded animation or videos.

Modification

Technology allows for significant task re-design.

Groups saving and sharing documents through the cloud.

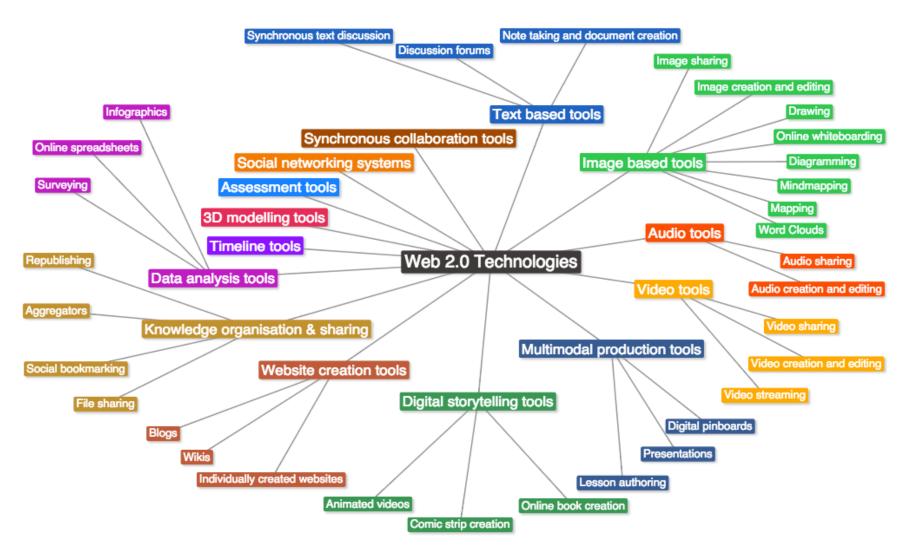

Redefinition

Technology allows for completely new tasks, previously not considered.

Instructor
matches students peers living and studying in different countries

ONLINE, HYBRID, FLIPPED, & BLENDED CLASSES

Bower, Matt (2015). A Typology of Web 2.0 Learning Technologies. Accessed April 2018 via https://library.educause.edu/resources/2015/2/a-typology-of-web-20-learning-technologies.